It was severe and orthodox,
He scorned each social scandal;
He blushed to hear that girls wore socks,
And said it was a scandal.
But, oh, it made his senses reel,
And he was shocked! Why, rather,
When he saw his daughter on a wheel
The bow almost killed for fear.

BROKEN PROMISES.

The Way in Which Some Building Associations Hoodwink Shareholders.

People are too prone to grab at a project which promises the largest return for an investment.

We used the word "promises" advisedly, for the thing begins and ends with a promise.

The performance is never realized.

This is particularly true of some Building Associations.

They promise their shareholders 15 per cent. on their stock—but never pay anything.

Since the Court of Appeals of Kentucky has shut down on Associations that have been exacting enormous interest from borrowers, several of that class have failed—"busted," if you please,—and shareholders that were promised such large returns will lose the biggest part, if not all, that has been paid in.

Others are sending out circulars begging their stockholders not to press them for money, 5c, 10c, etc., showing the general rottenness of concerns that promise such big things.

On the other hand, the Mason County Building and Savings Association, after an existence of nearly twenty-five years, has never failed to redeem every promise made. It is conducted on business principles. It agrees to return to shareholders their monthly dues and to pay them 6 per cent. interest at the beginning of each year—and it does it. It charges only 5 per cent. interest on loans made to shareholders—no more, no less. It affords an absolutely safe investment. Its officers are our own citizens. It is, moreover, a Maysville institution, and worthy of our confidence and support.

Books are now open for subscriptions to the Twenty-third Series of stock.

Call on M. C. Russell Secretary, R. K. Hoedrich Treasurer, or any of the Directors.

W. K. MORROW, Comedian; late star with "Dr. Bill" Company.

GRULLA: the great Spanish dancer, HILSON and WILSON, Operatic Duo.

BILLY BUTLER, Canadian, Monologist and Dancer and other high-class acts.

What the Local Association is Doing For the City's Young Men.

Attention, G. A. R.!

The President of the Association has called a special meeting of the Board of Directors for this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Very important business and every Director should be present. Please come promptly.

If any of the young men of the city wish to spend forty or fifty minutes in a most pleasant profitable way on Sunday afternoon, let them come to the Y. M. C. A. parlors at 4 o'clock and enjoy the special program that has been provided. A brief talk by Rev. William Crow on a patriotic theme, and some rousing musical selections rendered by the Choir of St. John's M. E. Church, which is under the leadership of Mr. George Hardin, will insure an excellent service. And then after the meeting you may remain a few minutes longer, chatting pleasantly with the other fellows, while refreshing lemonade is being passed around. It will be a rousing patriotic Fourth of July rally for men. Don't fail to attend.

Squire B. B. McGuire, aged 83, died at his home in Robertson county from injuries received by being thrown from his horse a few days ago. He had been Justice of the Peace and Deputy County Clerk for more than fifty years, and it is said never had one of his decisions reversed on appeal.

Saturday Maysville's Fourth of July celebration promises to be a big affair. You will be tired when you come to town. Come to the St. Charles and one glass of our Anheuser-Busch before going out to the grounds. GEN. RIVERA

Removed From the Hospital to the Cabanas Fortress.

He is Suffering From an Abscess in the Right Side of the Stomach.

The General Believes This Was Due to the Fall He Had When Wounded—He is Well Satisfied With the Medical and Surgical Attendance Provided.

HAVANA, July 2.—Gen. Luis Rivera has been removed from the San Ambrosio hospital to the Cabanas fortress by advice of the attending surgeons. After a consultation between the medical director of the hospital, Dr. Agustín Muñoz, and the head physician, Dr. Max Fernandez, Dr. Benítez and other hospital physicians, it was decided to make an incision in the upper part of the liver. The operation was performed by Doctors Fernandez and Velaz, but it was not considered expedient to continue the line of treatment and the physicians will probably continue themselves hereafter to the local applications for the patient's relief and to general therapeutic treatment. The bulletin as to the patient's condition says he is suffering from an abscess in the right side of the stomach near and above the liver.

Gen. Rivera believes this was due to the fall he had at the time he was wounded. He attaches no importance to it, and in fact, for some time did not notice it at all. He expresses his belief in the excellent medical and surgical attendance provided, as well as with the nurses. All the food supplied him is excellent, his meals being served from a restaurant nearby at his own expense.

He told a newspaper correspondent that the wound had healed and that the limb had never shown any symptoms of gangrene. Naturally he suffers a good deal from the absence of the abscess. Since he entered the hospital he has improved somewhat in spite, although his general condition is very serious, because of absence of appetite and the lack of nutrition for the general system.

It is probable that when he recovers a somewhat more radical operation will be performed, though not to the extent of a fetal delivery. Gen. Rivera occupies the best room in the hospital. He says:

"I can not expect to have a room in the palace."

IN JEALOUS ANGER

It is Thought Mrs. Mack Had Killed Goldensuep and That She Had Killed the Boy.

New York, July 2.—That William Goldensuep was murdered by his wife in a fit of jealous anger, and his body then cut in pieces and scattered about the city, is the latest evidence in the apparent solution of New York's murder mystery. The latest evidence is that Mrs. Mack, who was quarreling with Goldensuep, says she quarreled with him on the day the crime is supposed to have been committed. The "lucky woman," who was quarreling with Goldensuep, whom she was subject to fits of jealous anger, and on two occasions threatened to kill with a butcher knife and saw, which were found in the woman's apartment.

She is identified as a person having bought oldish similar to that in which pieces of the corpse were wrapped. On Saturday Mrs. Mack and an unknown man hired a horse and carriage and were gone from 8:30 to 9 p. m. Saturday. The horse was returned covered with food and was taken away by the police early Wednesday morning. Mrs. Mack was making hasty preparations to leave the city. She says Goldensuep was alive, but tells contradictory stories.

She is under arrest on suspicion of being concerned in the murder. The charge of murder has not been brought against her. There are one or two other things which yet remain unexplained. The man who was quarreling with Mrs. Mack is believed to be Martin Thom, a Frenchman, who was killed in the midwife. The search for the victim's head is being pushed, as it is desired to make the corpse complete, and for further evidence.
